Acoustic and High Energy Electric Blues
Saturday 6 May 2017 / 7.30pm
£12.00 / £10.00 (concession)

Guaranteed to be an electrifying Saturday night!

Unadulterated acoustic blues and electric blues rock courtesy of Main Street Blues, one of the most prominent Scottish bands to emerge in the genre. The band has been so popular here that we just had to have them back again.

The band has sold out performances at the Edinburgh Jazz and Blues Festival for the past 5 years and part of their set was broadcast by the BBC when the band played the Main Stage at the Belladrum Tartan Heart Festival in August 2016.

‘Simply First Class’ – Press & Journal

‘So tight you couldn’t slide a Rizla between them. Great gig.’ - Ian Rankin

‘I was left craving and shouting for more with a crowd who were happy having shared this great show.’ - Mike Dr Blue McKeon, British Blues Archive
New Victory Players

Dancing at Lughnasa

By Brian Friel

Wednesday 10 May – Saturday 13 May 2017 / 7.30pm

£12.00

New Victory Players return to The Art Centre with this beautiful evocative play by one of theatre’s best loved dramatists Brian Friel.

Dancing at Lughnasa is a tender poignant and humorous study of the Mundy family. Narrated by Michael he recalls his childhood home in County Donegal during the summer of 1936.

Premiered at Dublin Abbey Theatre in 1990, this multi award winning play was acclaimed subsequently in London and on Broadway. This was followed by a screen adaptation in 1998 starring Meryl Streep and Michael Gambon.

It Runs in the Family

Written by Ray Cooney

Thursday 25 May – Saturday 27 May 2017 / 8.00pm
£10.00 / £8.00 (concession)

Just as Dr David Mortimer is about to deliver the most important lecture of his life, ex-girlfriend Jane Tate turns up with a shocking revelation.

As he tries to hold together his career and his marriage he turns for help to his faithful friend and fellow doctor. Chaos ensues!

This is farce at its best as the situation spins hilariously out of control in typical Ray Cooney fashion.
In Edinburgh between 1827 and 1828, science and murder cling together in a dance of death.

Sixteen people are slaughtered by Burke and Hare and the devil and all his works prowls the streets of ‘Auld Reekie’.

Dr Robert Knox, scientist, doctor and anatomist supreme, waits in Surgeons Square to buy bodies for the sake of advancing medical knowledge. His door is chapped, a body is delivered, money is paid and no questions are asked.

A trail of terror leads from West Port to the dissection table of Robert Knox.

Murder will out and a price must be paid, even by the anatomist supreme.

Doctor Knox will have to pay that price.

“A thought-provoking performance... the play was brilliantly acted.... Bravo” Isosceles

“A superb show, highly recommended.” Dumfries and Galloway Life

Stuart Mitchell – ‘Dealt a Bad Hand’

Thursday 8 June 2017 / 8.00pm
£12.00 / £10.00 (concession)

From BBC Radio Scotland’s ‘Breaking the News’, ‘Scotland’s brightest comedy talent’ * (Sun), Stuart Mitchell brings his smash hit sell out Fringe debut to East Kilbride.

This is a must-see for 2017.

Stuart has been dealt a bad hand, and not just in life. From tragic accidents and medical complications to losing both parents, this debut is a hilarious take on dealing with life’s misfortunes and coming out the other end unscathed.

‘One of Scotland’s rising star’s, Stuart Mitchell is a comedian worth catching before he becomes mega.’ Sunday Mail - Pick of the Fringe

‘There’s a real warmth and honesty running alongside the clever wordplay and sharp one-liners. Stuart has a wonderfully relaxed stage presence that hints of great things to come.’ * The Herald

‘All of which explains why Stuart’s profile is rising sharply. Last year, he became a regular on BBC Radio Scotland’s Breaking The News, toured with Fred Macaulay, Stewart Francis and Hal Cruttenden, and performed in Australia and the US, winning the endorsement of comedy giant Will Ferrell.’ * PositivelyScottish

Fred MacAulay – Live 2017

Sunday 30 July 2017 / 8.00pm
£14.00 / £12.00 (concession)
Age restriction: 16+

Having had a successful sell-out Scottish Tour in 2016, and ahead of his annual attendance at Edinburgh Fringe (this will be his 29th), Fred is on the road again around Scotland (with a few trips over Hadrian’s Wall) with a stand-up show for 2017.

With so much happening politically at home and abroad, there’s no shortage of material for comedians.

Are you worried about the future after Brexit? How do you plan to celebrate the triggering of Article 50. And speaking of ‘triggering’ could Trump really kick off the war that’ll not only end all wars, but the whole freaking planet!

Fred might not have the answers to political questions (or else he would have been on Question Time) but one thing is for sure, after nearly 30 years on stage, he’ll have a bloody good laugh about it all. And so will you.

Fred’s brand of humour mixes cheek, sarcasm and satire and has entertained people for three decades. If you’ve seen him before, you know it’s good comedy. And for new fans, come and see the man once described as “Scotland’s rising star of comedy” and now “Legend”.

“One of the best stand-up comedians Britain has ever produced”

ReimagiNation: East Kilbride

Saturday 19 – Monday 21 August 2017
Times vary
Ticketed events: £5.00 / £3.50 (concession)
Non-ticketed events: free
All ages

The world’s biggest celebration of the written word comes to East Kilbride! The Edinburgh International Book Festival pops up across the town on the second stage of ReimagiNation, a tour of Scotland’s New Towns marking 70 years since the passing of the New Towns Act and the reshaping of Scotland following the Second World War.

Some of the best authors around take part in inspiring, eye-opening and entertaining events for audiences of all ages. Launching on the evening of Saturday 19 August, East Kilbride Arts Centre comes alive with words and laughter as events including Unbound, the Book Festival’s free cabaret caper, bring local voices and international writers together on stage.

Through Sunday and Monday there’s a cluster of great events and workshops for adults, families, and schools across both The Village Theatre and the Village Centre itself, including performances of Ishbel McFarlane’s interactive theatre experience Plan. Both indoors and out there’s a range of drop-in activities, stalls and attractions to visit, including a temporary bookshop.

Full programme and ticketing details are announced in June – keep up to date by visiting www.booked.edbookfest.co.uk and follow the Edinburgh International Book Festival on social media.

ReimagiNation: East Kilbride is presented in partnership with South Lanarkshire Council, South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture and The Village Centre, and is supported by players of People’s Postcode Lottery.

The Biblical saga of Joseph and his coat of many colours comes to life in this delightful musical parable. Joseph, Jacob’s favourite son, is blessed with prophetic dreams. When he is sold into slavery by his jealous brothers, Joseph braves a series of adventures in which his spirit is challenged. When news of Joseph’s gift to interpret dreams reaches the Pharaoh, Joseph is well on his way to becoming second in command. Eventually his brothers, unknowingly find themselves groveling at the feet of Joseph but no longer recognize him. After testing their integrity, Joseph reveals himself to them, leading to a reconciliation of the sons of Israel.

Set to an appealing mix of musical styles, from country-western and calypso to pop and rock ‘n’ roll, this tale is both timely and timeless.
Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf!
By Edward Albee
Sunday 21 May 2017 / 7.30pm
£12.00 / £10.00 (concession)

“The most important American playwright of his generation!”
The New York Times on Edward Albee

A marathon night of drink, debauchery and duplicity develops after Martha and her husband George invite unsuspecting young couple, Nick and Honey, round for a nightcap. Drink flows, spiked with vicious humour, acerbic wit and tempestuous verbal sparring. However, as night turns to morning, searing secrets are exposed.

Putting the ‘fun’ into dysfunctional, Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf wryly exposes the dark attraction in relationships and the bitterest ties that bind us all.

Starring Rose Reynolds, Robin Kingsland and Paul Albertson, with Scottish actress Sara Stewart (The Night Manager, Rebus, Batman Begins, Doctor Foster) leading the cast as Martha. Directed by Michael Emans.

Following acclaimed productions of Arthur Miller’s All My Sons and Michael Frayn’s Tony award-winning Democracy, Rapture returns with Edward Albee’s thrilling play. In celebration of the 50th anniversary of the multi-Oscar winning film (Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor), this is a rare opportunity to experience an iconic American masterpiece.

The most talked about play this season. Unmissable!

The play charts the decline and fall of Gerry and Laura Stratton’s successful family business. On Laura’s fifty-fourth birthday, Gerry organises a small family dinner at their favourite restaurant the “Essa de Calvi”. Owner Ernesto Calvinu runs the restaurant with Tuto, Aggi, Dinka and Bengie. Domestically, all seems well. Gerry and Laura’s elder son, Glyn, has patched up his marriage with Stephanie; younger son, Adam, is deeply in love with new girlfriend, Maureen. Gradually, family skeletons appear. We see Glyn’s story move forward in time, Adam’s backwards, and, in the present, Gerry and Laura pick apart their marriage.

Dandy Dan’s hoodlums terrorise the district of New York, exterminating undesirables with their new weapon – splurge guns. His rival is Fat Sam Stacetto, who runs the Grand Slam Speakeasy, but Fat Sam’s gang still use old fashioned pies.

Fat Sam engages the help of Bugsy Malone, a smooth city slicker who hitherto has been more occupied in sweet talking Blousey Brown, a would-be girl singer. With Bugsy’s help, Fat Sam escapes the frame-up but he learns later that Dandy Dan’s mob have splurged nearly all his gang.

The show based on the Rank Film Organisation movie contains great songs including: My Name Is Tallulah, I’m Feeling Fine, Fat Sam’s Grand Slam, Bugsy Malone, Give a Little Love, Tomorrow, and many more. The film also introduced Jodie Foster and Scott Baio to headline success.

The Apollo Players are delighted to return to the Village Theatre once again having already played Les Miserables, High School Musical, The King and I.

£15.00 / £13.00 (concession)

MacFloyd return to the Village Theatre with their new show for 2017.

The show will celebrate the 40th anniversary of Pink Floyd’s “Animals” album. The band will perform this classic album in its entirety as well as favourites from “The Dark Side Of The Moon”, “Wish You Were Here”, “The Wall” and many more.

In a show lasting over two hours the fans will enjoy an impressive light and laser display alongside stunning visual effects.

You too can be part of the journey... if only for one night. Enjoy the ride!
South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited Cultural Venues
Box Office terms and conditions

Cancellations
In the event of a performance being cancelled, South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited will take reasonable steps to notify ticket holders. However, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to notify ticket holders prior to the event date. In the event of a performance being cancelled, South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited will not be held responsible for any travel, accommodation or other ancillary costs incurred by the ticket holder.

Charges for carers / escorts
All carers / escorts will be required to purchase a valid ticket for any performance.

Children / infants / babies
A ticket must be purchased for any child who is aged 1 or over. For babies who are under the age of 1 (on the date of the performance being attended), a ‘Babes in Arms’ ticket will be issued, free of charge, which will allow entry to the auditorium. A reserved seat will not be allocated with this ticket. In the event of a sell out performance, ‘Babes in Arms’ tickets may be limited and entry refused to the auditorium. At performances which are specifically aimed at those under the age of 1, ‘Babes in Arms’ tickets will not be available. No one under the age of 16 will be admitted to a performance without being accompanied by a parent, responsible adult (who must be aged 18 or over) or legal guardian.

Concessions
The following groups are eligible for concessionary ticket prices: Holders of South Lanarkshire Leisure ‘Leisure for all’ cards. Other concession may be available – please see venue for details. Please note that concessions may not be available for all performances.

Latecomers
Latecomers may not be admitted until a suitable break in the performance. This may be the interval.

Lost / stolen tickets
South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited will not be held responsible for lost or stolen tickets.

Management rules
A valid ticket is required to enter the auditorium and at some locations to enter the bar area. South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited reserves the right to refuse admission to the auditorium or to request that any ticket holder leave the auditorium and may take appropriate action to enforce this right. South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited will not be held responsible for any personal property brought into the venue. Ticket holders agree to abide by the Venue Management Rules and Fire and Evacuation procedures at all times. These are available to customers on request and/or are displayed within the venue.

Photography / recording
The unauthorised use of photographic and/or recording equipment (audio or video) is strictly prohibited and failure to comply will result in removal from the auditorium.

Filming and recording of performances
On occasion filming and recording may be carried out at the venue, by attending an event you give your express consent to be included in such films and recordings and for these to be exploited in any and all media at any time throughout the world. This includes any filming by police or security staff which may be carried out for the security of our patrons.
Postage of tickets
Tickets purchased by telephone or online, within 5 working days of the date of the performance, will be held at the venue for collection at the box office rather than being posted out. A fixed postage fee of £1 will apply and be charged to the customer if tickets are posted.

Alterations to programme
South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited reserves the right to make alterations to the advertised programme at short notice (for example cast changes). In these instances South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited is not obliged to refund the ticket nor exchange the ticket for another performance.

Refunds / exchanges
Tickets, once purchased, cannot be refunded except in circumstances where the performance has been cancelled. Tickets must be returned to the point of purchase before a refund can be given. Ticket exchanges may be possible, subject to availability.

In the event of seating problems or other operational issues, South Lanarkshire and Culture Limited reserves the right to move customers from allocated seating to alternative seating without notice. In these instances South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited will not refund any difference in the customer’s ticket price nor exchange the customer’s ticket for another performance.

Resales
The re-selling of tickets that have already been purchased will only be conducted by South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Limited at the Venue Manager’s discretion.

Reservations
Tickets that have been reserved must be paid for within three days of reservation or within a timescale specifically advised by sales staff, otherwise, tickets which have been reserved and not paid for may be released for general sale without notice.

Special access requirements
Customers must inform the box office, at the time of booking, of any ticket holders who require special access to the venue. (For example: wheelchair users, those who cannot use stairs etc) Failure to do so may result in admission to the auditorium being denied on the day of the performance if we are unable to offer suitable seating that complies with our Fire & Evacuation procedures.
