Lanark Memorial Hall

is a Grade B listed building constructed in 1926 in memory of the 232 men belonging to Lanark and District who lost their lives in World War One. Lanark Memorial Hall has undergone a £5.3 million refurbishment with the support of the National Lottery Heritage fund and Historic Scotland and is now a multi-purpose community facility.

The successful refurbishment, completed in 2013, has given Lanark Memorial Hall facilities capable of hosting conferences, weddings, social events and performances. The facility also promotes various arts classes for all ages as well as promoting a diverse cultural events programme.

Lanark Memorial Hall has a number of multi function spaces that can meet the needs of customers, providing anything from a beautiful wedding venue or performance space to modern conference or meeting facilities.

Testimonials

“What a beautiful venue – so well laid out, clean and with brilliant facilities. We enjoyed our event and will definitely come back.

“Lanark Memorial Hall is staffed from top to bottom with helpful and amenable staff, who so evidently have a great pride in the new venue. They have an ethos of “can do” and are always smiling, cheerful and helpful. The £6 million spent on refurbishing the venue is money well spent but the added value that the staff bring to it is indeed priceless.

“Please extend my sincere thanks to all of the team who worked so tirelessly to ensure that my function was such a success. Please convey my thanks to the chefs for the delicious meals they provided – the vegetarian option was sublime!

“Just a personal note from me to thank all of the staff for making the event go so smoothly. The guys were so helpful and friendly. Their professionalism and willingness to go the extra mile makes them a real asset to your fine venue.

Frequently asked questions

Q: What does the venue hire fee pay for?
